d Mark is always the perfect example of composure and character on and off the lanes. Mark never lets his ego get in the way. Mark is a competitive bowler but his confidence in his own game and easy going attitude makes him fun to be around. Mark is respected by all the bowlers around him. His great accomplishments in bowling are superior to most and his overall consistency is tremendous while always keeping his cool. Mark has an image that is looked up to by myself and many others. If we could only be that good!! Mark's character and all around positive image makes him a model candidate for the Hall of Fame.
