

Robert Ayers: A Candidate for MTCBA Hall of Fame for Meritorious Service

Robert Ayers has dedicated 29 years of service to the Massachusetts Tri-County Bowling Association (MTCBA), demonstrating an unwavering commitment to the sport of bowling and the community it supports. His contributions span various roles and responsibilities, from leadership positions to volunteer work, all of which make him a deserving candidate for the MTCBA Hall of Fame for Meritorious Service.

Commitment to Youth Bowling (GSYABA and YABA)

Bob's deep involvement with youth bowling is one of his most notable contributions. He has been affiliated with the Greater Springfield Youth American Bowling Alliance (GSYABA) for 18 years, serving as its president for five years. During his time with the GSYABA, Bob organized a Junior Tournament to fundraise for the youth bowlers and also established the Junior Leaders Program. His work has helped cultivate a positive environment for younger bowlers to learn and grow in the sport.

Leadership and Representation

Bob's leadership within the MTCBA is highlighted by his service as President for three years and as Vice President. Additionally, he has been a director and actively participated in several MTCBA special committees. Bob's administrative capabilities are also demonstrated in his role as a League Secretary, Treasurer, and President over the years, showing his versatility and commitment at various levels of bowling administration.

Participation in National and State Events

Bob has consistently represented the MTCBA at local, state, and national levels. He has attended multiple state meetings as a delegate and has been an active participant at the national level, attending conventions in Huntsville, AL, Syracuse, NY, and Albuquerque, NM, among others. Bob's participation in these conventions has allowed him to bring back vital information to the MTCBA, contributing to the development and improvement of the association.

On a national level, Bob has spoken with leaders and attended seminars to gather insights and feedback on behalf of MTCBA. His dedication to gathering and sharing important information has helped keep MTCBA well-informed on national issues and trends affecting the sport.

Promotion of MTCBA

Bob has been instrumental in promoting the MTCBA at various levels. He was actively involved in producing a program book to defray expenses and contributed to "spreading the word" about upcoming state tournaments. Additionally, his efforts to speak with national leaders on behalf of the MTCBA demonstrate his commitment to ensuring that the association's voice is heard at the highest levels of the sport.

Administrative and Tournament Service

Bob has played an integral role in the administration of MTCBA tournaments, including recaps, scorekeeping, and check-ins at both local and state events. His experience as a lane inspector and his work preparing reports from national conventions further illustrate his broad involvement in the operational aspects of the association. Bob also takes on the responsibility of courier service for the Local Association Secretary, ensuring that league sanctions and award applications are handled efficiently.

Personal Attributes and Impact

Bob is known for his courteous, dependable, and respectable demeanor on and off the lanes. His commitment to helping others improve in the sport is evident in the many juniors who have approached him over the years, expressing their gratitude for his guidance and leadership. Bob's ability to balance leadership with a good sense of humor and grace in both victory and defeat has earned him the admiration of his peers and community.

Conclusion

Robert Ayers' 29 years of dedicated service to the MTCBA and his extensive involvement with youth bowling, leadership roles, and administrative responsibilities make him an exemplary candidate for the MTCBA Hall of Fame for Meritorious Service. His contributions have had a lasting impact on the bowling community, and his leadership and commitment have helped improve the sport for countless bowlers. Bob Ayers' legacy of service, respect, and humor on and off the lanes makes him more than deserving of this prestigious honor.
