

Penny Jahsman is an accomplished bowler with a distinguished career marked by numerous titles, high finishes, and record-breaking performances. Her impressive achievements reflect her skill, consistency, and dedication to the sport over many years.

Tournament Titles and Championships

Penny Jahsman has claimed several major titles throughout her career. She is a two-time champion in both the Tournament Bowlers Association (TBA) and National Independent Tournament (NIT) events. In 1992, she won the Greater Springfield Women's Bowling Association (GSWBA) mixed team championship. She also took first place in the 10th Lilac Tournament (singles) during the 1996-97 season. Additionally, she achieved second-place finishes and multiple top-six placements in the prestigious Women's All-Star Tournament.

In 1997, Jahsman became the first bowler from Massachusetts to be selected for Team USA, further solidifying her status as one of the top bowlers in the country. Her state-level accomplishments include winning the 1990 Massachusetts State Cambridge Championship and securing first place in doubles at the 13th National Amateur Championships of the Massachusetts Tenpin & Candlepin Bowling Association (MTCBA). She also earned a notable 6th place finish in the Women's International Bowling Congress (WIBC) National Tournament Singles and cashed in the last four consecutive WIBC Queens tournaments.

Professional and Regional Success

Penny Jahsman has also made a name for herself on the professional circuit. She is a regional champion with the Overtime Sports Professional Women's Bowling Association (PWBA) and has cashed in multiple PWBA events, with her best national finish being 12th place. Her consistency and ability to perform under pressure are demonstrated by her accomplishment of rolling a perfect 300 game and three 290 games. She has a high series of 791, which was a record for the GSWBA, and she has achieved over 50 700 series scores in her lifetime.

State and Regional Records

In state-level competitions, Jahsman has won multiple titles, including three GSWBA All-Events titles and three GSWBA singles titles. She was part of the winning team at the Massachusetts Women's Bowling Association (MWBA) State Team Championships in 1998, 1999, and 2000, and she holds a co-record for the state scratch team and doubles events. Additionally, Jahsman was the MWBA State Doubles Champion in 1999-2000.

High Series, High Game, and High Average

Penny Jahsman has consistently dominated the GSWBA leaderboards over the years. She held the high series record in 1992-93 and 1996-97, the high game record in 1993-94, and the high average in 1997-98. She also led the GSWBA in high average, series, and game during the 1998-99 and 1999-2000 seasons. Notably, she held the highest average in both the GSWBA and the state of Massachusetts in 2000.
