

Arthur Corey has been a dedicated member of the Massachusetts Tri-County Bowling Association (MTCBA) for decades, contributing significantly to the growth and development of the sport through his leadership and service. His commitment to bowling has been recognized through his long-standing involvement with the MTCBA and numerous leadership roles at both the local and national levels.

Longstanding Leadership and Service

Arthur Corey has served on the MTCBA Board of Directors since 1968, demonstrating unwavering dedication to the sport of bowling for over 25 years. His efforts to improve and promote the game have been marked by his sincere and conscientious approach to his responsibilities, which have earned him widespread respect in the bowling community. Throughout his time on the board, Arthur has held numerous key positions, including Vice President from 1972 to 1976 and again from 1979 to 1988. His leadership has been instrumental in shaping the direction of the MTCBA during these years. Additionally, Arthur served as the MTCBA Secretary from 1977 to 1978, playing a vital role in the administration and coordination of the association's activities.

Significant Contributions to Bowling

Arthur's contributions extend beyond administrative roles. Since 1972, he has served as Chairman of the Heart Bowl Fund Drive, a significant initiative that underscores his commitment to community involvement through bowling. His dedication to this cause has had a lasting impact, helping to raise funds for important charitable efforts while fostering a sense of unity within the bowling community.

Arthur was also the Past Chairman of the MTCBA Seniors Tournament, where he worked to ensure that senior bowlers had opportunities to compete and enjoy the sport. His leadership in this capacity highlighted his commitment to serving bowlers of all ages and skill levels.

National and State Representation

Arthur Corey's service to bowling extends beyond the MTCBA. He has represented the association as a delegate to both the American Bowling Congress (ABC) National Convention and the Massachusetts State Tenpin Bowling Association. His involvement at the national level showcases his dedication to advancing the sport and ensuring that the MTCBA's voice is heard on a broader stage.

Conclusion

Arthur Corey's decades of service to the MTCBA and his leadership in numerous key roles have left an indelible mark on the sport of bowling. His commitment to promoting the game, serving the community, and leading with sincerity and dedication make him a highly deserving recipient of the Meritorious Service Award. His efforts have not only contributed to the growth of bowling within Massachusetts but have also had a lasting impact on the national level.
