

YES

I, John Raymond, would like to nominate Bill Green for membership into the Mass Tri-county Bowling Hall of Fame.

Bill has been a member in good standing for over 30 years where he has been someone always willing to help people with their bowling game.

Bill will sit down and talk about bowling with anyone who wants to listen and learn.

Bill is currently moving to become a member of the Mass. Tri-county board of directors.

Bill has won over 30 Tournament titles around New England and Las Vegas.

City tournament, Masters, State tournament, State Seniors, NEBA'S, cove and Las Vegas sweeper

This past year Bill tied Hall of Famer Jeff Macri as the only bowlers to win the MTCBA Masters 5 times with a new MTCBA Masters record.

Bill is also tied with Hall of Famer John Raymond--- MTCBA City tournament Doubles Scratch titles with 4 different partners.

Bill has attended the USBC Nationals over 20 years

If there is a tournament going on bill is always looking to compete.

Bill is the kind of bowler that when he is bowling well, he will draw a crowd to watch.

I believe Bill would be a great addition to the Mass. Tri-county Hall of Fame that has many great bowlers and I look forward to Bill's joining the MTCBA Board of Directors in the future
